

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

MASS

SUFFOLK

BOSTON

491 Boylston St.

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

MASS, 13-BOST, 56

ROGERS BUILDING (M.I.T.)

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

MASS-252

History-Built 1865 from plans prepared in Paris by William G. Preston, the architect in charge of construction. Originally built to accommodate all courses of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, it was used in later years only by the Architectural Department. Demolished 1939.

PUBLISHED
PHOTOGRAPHSPUBLISHED DRAWINGS

FN-53(8)

Description-4-story, basement and attic;
brick, with granite base below watertable,
brownstone trim above, except main cornice which is cast iron.

Reference-A Half Century of Boston's Building, by Charles S. Damrell, Boston, 1895,
Louis P. Hager, p. 42.

Francis H. Brown 3 Underwood St., Belmont

April 19, 1939